This week volunteer solicitors are making the rounds all over the nation with the object of ascertaining who is—and who is not—willing to pledge ten per cent of his income (or whatever they can) toward the purchase of United States War bonds and stamps. I imagine that Campbell would furnish a fairly representative cross-section of the populace, inasmuch as we have with us a considerable number of well-paid defense workers, an average of salaried people, most of whose incomes have not increased lately, and, of course, those in the lower income brackets (although not as low as they have been in recent years).

Reaction to solicitors' appeals generally has been good, but there have been reported a number of cases where the attitude of the solicitee has been anything but cooperative.

For example: A solicitor told me, without naming names, that she had called on the family of a defense worker who makes from $50 to $125 a week, and at the time of her (solicitor's) call, they were not prepared to pledge anything to the bond-buying program! In fact, this particular solicitor—still without naming names—told me that she had had an exceedingly disheartening day. And she is not the only one from whom I have heard directly or indirectly. (No names, mind you; but if you're sidestepping the issue, this is for you.)

Some of those who have declined to sign up begged off on the score that they were already carrying a full load—one that took their entire income. No doubt there are many who, before the war broke out, assumed obligations right up to the limit of their incomes, but even those, if they will re-hash their budgets, will find that they can invest something, even though it might call for the sacrifice of their week-end luxuries. I personally know one family, obligated before the war to the last nickel, who have assumed a $25 war bond per month. And if they can do it, others can. It is not absolutely necessary to pledge a full ten per cent of your income; buy to the best of your ability, no matter how little it is. You will notice, too, that the pledge calls for this expenditure only as long as you can afford it; strict adherence is not compulsory. Should straightened circumstances overtake you the pledge becomes inactive until such time as you are able to resume your purchases of bonds or stamps.

Unless I miss my guess—and I flatter myself that I have missed few in recent years—the current campaign is designed, in part, to test the mettle of the great American public insofar as it is willing to make personal sacrifices to pay for the war. An inadequate response to voluntary purchases of war bonds and stamps will, I am sure, lead all the more quickly to a general sales tax and a greatly increased income tax. These things are inevitable, anyway, but might be staved

P.T. A. Units Hear Reports at Final Season's Meeting

Campbell Grammar School P.T. A. met May 26 in the kindergarten room of the school. The meeting opened with the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag and the singing of "America."

Convention reports were given by the delegates to the convention in Long Beach. Mrs. John Morley gave a detailed report of the subjects brought up, nutrition, registration and identification of all children. Children should not be placed in defense work unless essential.

There are 2,600,000 members in P.T. A. in the country and 1,849 units in California and at Long Beach there were 38 delegates and 2,411 visitors from the sixth district.

Mrs. Carl Field, president of the high school unit gave reports upon the magazine luncheon and mother singers. Mrs. Worthin Grattan gave a report on the speech given by Dr. Gertrude Laur, and the resolutions adopted at the convention were read by Mrs. Morley.

$1,320 in defense stamps have been sold to the school children under the sponsorship of the P.T. A.

A paper drive will open the units activity in the fall and the meeting was adjourned until that time.

During the social hour the kindergarten, first and second grades entertained. The 8th grade "Hep Cats" played two musical numbers.

New Phone Books To be Out Soon

Within the next few days a new telephone directory for this community will go to the printer, according to C. D. Steiner, local manager for the telephone company, who stated that arrangements should be made now for any necessary changes in present directory listings.

Persons or firms considering the use of additional listings or advertising space in the Yellow Pages of the directory are also urged to place their orders without delay.

off temporarily by a generous response to the present bond-stamp campaign.

As a matter of fact, we "ain't seen nothing yet," if you'll permit a lapse into the vernacular, and when it comes it will come screaming out of the corner with a carnivorous leer practically splitting its "phys" from ear to ear.

In the meantime, we, the people, most of whom are still enjoying more or less normal lives here in the comparative safety of our home soil, must recognize the fact that the war—as are all wars—will be

Vegetables Will be Dehydrated Here

The West Coast Dehydrating company has leased, for a year from the Campbell Dehydrating company, the east side of the co-op for the purpose of dehydrating potatoes, and according to G. K. Schrader operations will start this week.

The company will employ help for three shifts with about 50 women and 10 men per shift and will hire as many local people as possible.

The Marlo Packing company has leased the west side of the co-op and is installing equipment for dehydrating potatoes. Other vegetables are to be dehydrated by both companies later in the season. The seasons tonnage of prunes will be taken care of by the co-op at the plant.

The names of members of the 1942 graduating classes of the Berkeley, Davis and San Francisco campuses of the University of California have just been made public, although final exercises were held May 13, because final examinations were not all complete at that time. The only representative from Campbell schools was Philip Judson Farley, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Guy E. Farley. He was awarded the degree of Doctor of Philosophy.

Campbell stores that generally observe the holidays will be closed Saturday in recognition of Memorial day which this year has added significance for many homes.

Local Pioneer Passes Away After Brief Illness

Last rites for Ellis William Preston were held Tuesday afternoon from the Methodist church, under the auspices of Morning Light Lodge, No. 42, I. O. O. F.

Officers in charge were Eugene H. Hodges, N. G., Abe Klassen, V. G., and William R. Copeland, chaplain.

He was one of the first rural mail carriers here and the first in the United States to use an automobile on his route.

Later he conducted a bicycle business and continued repair work until very recently, in conjunction with the garage which he operated for 28 years.

Mr. Preston had maintained his vigor until about a year ago when his health began to fail but he continued at the garage until a few weeks ago.

He leaves his wife Claudia Preston, a daughter Mrs. Irene B. Field of Vista, a son Clyde E. Preston of San Francisco and a granddaughter Carolyn Preston.

Refreshments and a social hour ended a pleasant afternoon.

VICTORY RINGS YOUR DOORBELL

This is the week when one of Uncle Sam's salesmen of Victory will ring your doorbell.

He will be one of the great army of Minute Men volunteers cooperating with the U. S. Treasury Department by asking each American personally to sign a card pledging him or her to buy shares in America Victorious by regular systematic purchase of war bonds and stamps.

It should be remembered that proud, big-muscled Uncle Sam isn't asking anybody to GIVE him a thin dime in this war bond drive. He asks everybody to LEND him all they can spare. He'll pay back every cent of it, with good interest, in ten years—or at any time emergency may require it. He wants the money now so that fighting young Americans, with the best fighting equipment in the world, can smash our enemies on their home grounds—and so that the homes and schools and hospitals and cities that Californians have built won't be blasted from the earth by invaders.

He will be selling the most precious thing any one of us ever has had a chance to buy, that Minute Man on the doorstep. Promise him you'll buy all that you can—all through the war. It's for Victory.

CALIFORNIA'S WAR BABIES

They broke all the birth records of all the years since '49, did California's war babies of '41.

Storks were in the air thicker than training planes as 125,000 blessed events went into the record—a marked increase over the 111,840 born in 1940, before the war clouds turned black.

It was so in the last war: a nation troubled, young men going forth to die, and a bumper crop of new babies. It is god that this is so in this war also. It gives the lie to any thought that our way of life is doomed because our youth is cynical and hopeless and spiritually beaten.

As always, with youth's sureness that it can solve the depressing present and make the world of tomorrow a place of happiness, young men and women marry in this Golden State, and begin their precious families—the while they prepare for fighting abroad and civilian defense at home.

Such California youth cannot be beaten by all the adverse and malicious forces in the world of today.

As to the world of tomorrow—that may be left to those bouncing war babies!

America's greatest state fair—by which we mean none other than California's—will not be staged this year. However, in many parts of the state county and district fairs are being held, as in former years, from now until the end of September.

Though on a less spectacular scale than at Sacramento, these local festivals, livestock shows, and agricultural and industrial exhibits, will carry on a tradition dear to California since the 1850's when its first state fair proved that, even then, El Dorado's fertile earth could produce far more than a dazzling wealth of gold.

With long, costly pleasure trips no longer in order, this is a year when county and district fairs should really come into their own. The field is all theirs for holding up the mirror to Californians' horn of plenty.

Popular Circus To be In San Jose, May 30, 31

Bringing an interlude of joy and cheer to relieve the tension of troublous times, Russell Bros.' Great 3-Ring Circus, one of America's largest, will be the center of attraction for many people of this community when it exhibits at San Jose Saturday and Sunday, May 30 and 31.

Long a prime favorite in the East and Middle West, Russell Bros. this year is extending its popularity to the Pacific coast, having opened its 1942 season with highly successful engagements in Los Angeles and Hollywood.

Among the stellar attractions on the all-new program are Winston's Equestrian Sea Lions, Jorgen M. Christensen's Argentine Criollo horses, the Skyrocketing Escalantes, the Sensational DeWaynes, the Four Acevados, the Aerial Alexandros, the Bell-Thazer Troupe, the Grace Orton Trio, the Clarkonians, and many other top-ranking aerial, acrobatic and arenic artists. Additional trained animal features include performing elephants, dancing horses, military ponies, leaping greyhounds, and Barney, chimpanzee star of "Tarzan" pictures.

The entire performance is plentifully spiced with the antics of the clowns, and attuned to spirited circus music played in the modern manner by Eddie Woekener's celebrated circus band.

Doors open at 1 and 7 p. m. to allow ample time to view the wild animal exhibits before the start of the big show at 2 and 8.

The Congregational choir is presenting a Twilight Hour of Music Sunday evening at 7:45. The program will include choral numbers and vocal and instrumental solos. Presenting some of the selections will be Miss Josephine Barbano and Mrs. Dorothy Rich, vocalists, and Harvey Wood, flute. The public is cordially invited.

Official U. S. Treasury War Bond Quotas for June

The above map of the country shows the War Bond Quota by states for the month of June totalling $800,000,000. Everybody every day is expected to invest at least ten per cent of his income in War Bonds to aid in financing America's offensive against the Axis powers.

The ultimate quota for the nation will be on a basis of one billion dollars per month effective in July. This sum is necessary to provide for all-out production of planes, guns, ships and munitions adequate to arm our fighting men with the tools necessary to win the war.

THE BOOK MARK

Dear Lovers of Good Books: Your Book Mark has seemingly unavoidably walked right into a situation that is difficult to back out of or to go through with.

You see, received a copy of Dr. Loomis' new book only a day ago and I so wished to tell you about it that I read fast and furious far into the night last night but did not succeed in completing it in time to ably describe it this week. So if you will be patient I solemnly promise to give you a complete review of a thoroughly, deeply interesting, compelling book entitled "The Bond Between Us" by the author of that widely discussed "Consultation Room" that Dr. Frederic Loomis wrote a couple of years ago. See you next week.

Mothers' and Daughters' Tea Held May 20

The annual Mothers and Daughters Tea of Campbell Union High school was held May 20 in the high school auditorium. The program consisted of numbers by many of the talented boys and girls of the school.

A trio, Ruth Cousins, Teresa Conetto and Camille Laederich, sang "By the Waters of the Minnetonka."

A clarinet obligato by Ross Ruller and piano accompaniment by Bob Wheeler was greatly enjoyed. Laura Haskins played an alto clarinet solo "The Little Girl Dressed in Blue," accompanied on the piano by Nina Page which was very entertaining as was a solo by Ruth Cousins, "My Hero" and a second number "Beautiful Dreamer." Elaine Jeffers was her accompanist.

The first and second sewing classes gave a fashion show with Helen Howell as commentator. The girls who modeled the garments were: Bernice Livacich, Anna Cascio, Kathleen Whitmarsh. The second year sewing class modeled woolen garments, the commentator was Mable Allen. Models were Laura Haskins, Rose Vitalie, Nancy Burkhart and Mable Allen.

Refreshments were served in the cooking room.

Greg Rice, Bryce Whitmore and Julius Bachman were fishing on Old River Saturday.

SYMBOL OF PATRIOTISM

MINUTE MAN FLIES HIGH.—This is the new Minute Man War Bond Flag, designed by the Treasury Department for firms and organizations which attain more than 90 percent participation in War Savings Bonds purchases by their employees or members through a systematic purchase plan. The Minute Man is emblazoned in white on a blue background, surrounded by thirteen stars, representing the Nation's thirteen founding States. When companies, labor unions, and other organizations top the 90 percent figure, they will receive a special Minute Man Certificate of Award signed by Secretary Morgenthau, the State Administrator, and the State Chairman of the War Savings Staff, the Treasury Department announced. This certificate entitles the recipient to fly the flag, which is being manufactured in various sizes and is sold by licensed suppliers at a nominal price.

California Men At Randolph Field

Randolph Field, Texas, May 25 — Twelve Californians—ten aviation cadets, two student officers—have just reported to the basic flying school at Randolph Field as members of 42-H, the latest and largest class of fledgling pilots. They've successfully completed their nine weeks of primary flying training at schools scattered throughout the southwest, and have now progressed to the 540-horsepower training planes at the "West Point of the Air."

Following nine weeks of formation, night, instrument, and cross-country flying training here, they will move on to advanced schools in the Gulf Coast Air Force Training Center for a final nine weeks before receiving their wings as Army Air Force pilots. The cadets will receive too, their commissions as second lieutenants.

Listed among the twelve with brief descriptive notes was the following:

Although a skier at San Jose State college, from which he graduated in 1940, Aviation Cadet Arnold Grim, 24, chose to join the sky troops rather than the ski

Orchard City Grange

Meeting of Orchard City Grange No. 333 was held in Campbell in I. O. O. F. hall Tuesday evening, May 26.

The evening opened with the harvest feast in the banquet hall and initiation ceremonies followed. The business meeting was occupied with matters of national defense.

Third and fourth degree initiation rites and the oath of obligation were given Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Lock and Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Peterson, all of Campbell.

Concerning the movement for salvaging scrap metal and the necessity of sending the scrap to the right agencies was pointed out. Many people it was stated have been sending it to well meaning but inexperienced welfare organizations who collect the material and turn it over directly to defense factories and without knowing how to segregate one metal from another. But the junk yards are experienced in that work, and it was pointed out that they should handle the scrap material in spite of rumors that they will sell to defense factories for a big profit—the government has put a ceiling on profits.

The war bond pledge drive was discussed in detail. Every Campbell organization, the grange included, has been given a district to sign every family for war bond pledges. The need of reminding people of their patriotic duty was stressed. More volunteers are needed right now, as the drive is to end May 31. Mrs. Melissa Smith is in charge of the grange solicitation.

It was announced that Mr. and Mrs. George Reynolds will celebrate their golden paid for by the people, and that the sooner we make up our minds to it, the sooner the war will be won.

After all, why shouldn't we dig down and make a few sacrifices? We've all seen pictures of the cheerful young men aboard transports bound for Australia and Ireland; all they're prepared to spend toward the winning the war is their lives—lives that, in most instances, have scarcely begun. We don't hear them belly-aching about a few dollars a month one way or the other; they're out there, God help them, to see that we here at home don't suffer the same fate as those in the conquered countries—a galaxy that occupies far too great a space on today's map of the world.

If I have trod on anybody's toes in the course of these remarks, I am sincerely sorry—that I don't wear French heels (and I don't mean Laval).

fliers skimmed over the house-tops of Tokio and dropped bombs on Japanese docks, ships and munition plants the first installment was paid in avenging the treacherous attack on Pearl Harbor. For two days the fires from Doolittle's bombs devastated Tokio's war industrial plants and those of other Nipponese cities. Tojo's propagandists attempted in vain to stem the panic of the people by trying to belittle the importance of the attack. But the war lords of Tokio know that attack will be repeated—that American bombers will return again and again and the day of vengeance for Pearl Harbor is in sight.

WITH YOUR Electric Range

This is a message to the thousands of California women who now use the electric range. It is a good and faithful and durable servant in your home. Take care of it. Study again the instruction book that came with your electric range. Save electricity and save your range by cooking at proper temperature and exact cooking time. Unnecessary high-heat wastes kilowatts. Overcooking wastes electricity and destroys nutritive values in foods.

You, as an electric range user, have practiced nutritional cooking for years. You have, for example, cooked vegetables with little water over the glowing coils of electric heat. Your family and your dinner guests know that foods so cooked are tastier. And because foods so cooked are not pot-watched and stirred they are whole and wholesome in nourishing vitamins and minerals.

The correct care and use of your electric range will be a contribution toward winning the war.
